An Offering

Dan Forrest

O Christ, who spared not any cost,
Nor any grace withheld,
But poured forth your redeeming blood
In love unparalleled;
What would you have me offer, Lord?
What must I count as loss
That I may taste the fellowship
That brings me near your cross?

Why should I cling to gifts you give?
Why grasp in foolish pride
What you who gave yourself for me
Now bid me lay aside?
To know you is my highest gain
Worth any sacrifice,
A treasure worthy to possess
At any earthly price.

Yet if behind my open hands,
My heart shrinks from the cost,
Teach me that nothing offered you
Is ever truly lost.
A hundredfold reward awaits
In one glimpse of your face,
My sacrifice forgotten
In the riches of your grace.
