Opening Prayer

God of all time and space, we give you thanks and praise for revealing your truth and yourself to us. Transforming spirit, who awakened Jesus' disciples on the mountaintop, awaken us here that we might discern your calling and claim on our lives. Grant us the faith to perceive Christ's glory, revealed in his transfiguration, that being strengthened by his grace we may become more like him, changed from glory into glory, discerning in him your truth to us and to the world. Amen.

Ministry of Music

Gracious God You Send Great Blessings

arr. Richard Gieseke

Gracious God, you send great blessings
New each morning all our days.
For your mercies never ending,
For your love we offer praise.

Refrain

Lord, we pray that we, your people
Who your gifts unnumbered claim,
Through the sharing of your blessings
May bring glory to your name.

By your word you formed creation
Filled with creatures large and small;
As we tend that endless treasure
May our care encircle all. Refrain

In his earthly life, our savior
Knew the care of faithful friends;
May our deeds of dedication
Offer love that never ends. Refrain

Heav'nly father, may our caring
Bear the imprint of your grace;
With the son and holy spirit,
Praise be yours in ev'ry place! Refrain

Ministry of Music

Jesus on the Mountain Peak

Michael Burkhardt

Jesus, on the mountain peak,
Stands alone in glory blazing.
Let us, if we dare to speak,
Join the saints and angels praising:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Trembling at his feet we saw
Moses and Elijah speaking.
All the prophets and the law
Shout through them their joyful greeting:
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Swift the cloud of glory came,
God, proclaiming in its thunder,
Jesus as the son by name!
Nations, cry aloud in wonder;
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus is the chosen one,
Living hope of ev'ry nation,
Hear and heed him, ev'ryone;
Sing, with earth and all creation,
Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia!

Eucharistic Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Thee We Adore

Ralph Johnson

Thee we adore, O hidden savior, thee,
Who in thy sacrament art pleased to be;
Both flesh and spirit in thy presence fail,
Yet here thy presence we devoutly hail.

Fountain of goodness, Jesus, Lord, and God,
Cleanse us, unclean, with thy most cleansing blood;
Increase our faith and love, that we may know
The hope and peace which from thy presence flow.

O Christ, whom now beneath a veil we see,
May what we thirst for soon our portion be,
To gaze on thee unveiled, and see thy face,
The vision of thy glory and thy grace.

WORSHIP NOTE

During Epiphany of 2022, from Christmas to Lent, the Revised Common Lectionary is following the Gospels of Luke and John as the Evangelists trace episodes from the early ministry of Jesus. Notice how the four stanzas of Sing of God Made Manifest, our Opening Hymn, sort of serve as Jesus' compact Curriculum Vitae. Each verse recites a Jesus story (Magi, Baptism, Wedding of Cana, and Transfiguration) by which Jesus' glory, his extraterrestrial otherness, is revealed to the world gradually but definitively as he makes his way from Bethlehem to Calvary. Kings attend his birth; a celestial voice and a sacred dove sweep down upon the River Jordan; he turns common well water into splendid wine; and his visage shines ethereally on the Holy Mountain. Episcopal priest Carl Daw (b. 1944) may be America's greatest contemporary hymnologist. By my own quick, unscientific survey, it looks like he's contributed about 100 compositions to English hymnals. He earned degrees at Rice University, the University of Virginia, and the University of the South, and now teaches at Boston University.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Masking: In anticipation of the statewide masking order lifting on Monday, February 28, the Church Reopening Team met to recommend updated Church COVID protocols to the Executive Committee.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 2 with Worship for All Ages at 4 p.m. and Traditional Worship at 7:30 p.m.

Lent in Your Backyard Devotional: The season of Lent may be a time to give something up; it may also be a time to look at something anew. The Kenilworth Union Church Adult Educational Committee and its Green Team invite you to join them for six weekly devotionals, beginning on Ash Wednesday, March 2, focusing on how we are called to be good stewards of God's Creation. Each week's devotional will be posted on the website and shared in the eNews. The devotionals contain invitations to read, reflect, pray, and take positive steps to be good stewards of the earth. Discover how caring for God's Creation may begin in your own home or backyard.

Lent Bible Read Along: Drop in as you can with Christine Hides for Bible study on Wednesdays—online and in person. We will use the scripture text from current sermon series the Sunday prior. To view the scripture lessons in advance, please visit the website.

Lent in Plain Sight: Our preachers will begin a Lenten Sermon Series called Lent in Plain Sight, the title of a book by Jill J. Duffield, a Presbyterian minister from Charlottesville, Virginia. Each week we'll reflect on a common object that is important in our daily lives and in the story of Jesus' Passion.

Daily Lenten Devotional: The 40 days of Lent prepare us to receive the story of Easter. We are made ready by the journey, day by day laying the groundwork for transformation. In the season of Lent, we draw near to the story of Jesus' life in order to hold the mystery of his death, resurrection and promises of new life. Christine Hides and Katie Lancaster will offer a Lenten devotional called Circle the Stories: Parables of the Great Parabler. They circled all the parables in the Gospel of Luke, in which Jesus offers 38 different tangible, mystery-laden (mystic?) stories of everyday objects and human encounters that push us to see the divine in life-transforming ways. Sign up to receive this daily devotional in your email inbox or follow along on social media.

Exploring Membership at Kenilworth Union Church: The March 6 membership class will be held 2–3:30 p.m. in the Culbertson Room; the March 7 class will be from 7–8:30 p.m. online. Only one class is needed as they are both the same. New Member Commissioning is the following Sunday, March 13 at the 10 a.m. worship service. Please contact Bruce Linger or Katie Snipes Lancaster for more information.

Save the Date for Outreach Benefit 2022: On April 29, the Outreach Committee will hold an in-person benefit at Michigan Shores Club in support of Kenilworth Union's Outreach agencies. We are looking for one more co-chair to work alongside Benefit co-chair Julie Danilek, as well as volunteers for the Benefit Committee. For more information, contact Julie or Outreach co-chairs Chris Cole and Mike Revord.

WORSHIP

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Care Connection: When circumstances arrive in life that preclude someone from engaging in the life of the church through in-person gatherings or worship and yet the fellowship of the congregation remains vital, we connect members together through cards, phone calls, and visits when possible. Care Connections celebrate the enduring thread that binds us together through the church. Volunteer: One of the easiest and best ways to bring a smile is to send a short note of encouragement, happiness, and love to our members who are homebound and no longer able to attend. If interested in serving on Care Connections or if you know of a member who would value the outreach, please contact Dayle Lively or Katie Lancaster.

ADULT EDUCATION

Registration is Open for the Creative Wellness Series: Mignon Dupepe is leading a second creative wellness course, Cocoon on Tuesday, March 8 in the Culbertson Room at 7 p.m. Please register early.

IMPACT 2022 Hawai'i Meeting: Meetings continue today, February 27 at 7 p.m. in the Culbertson Room where we dive deeper into the 2022 theme: Division. What divides us and how might God's love provide the way to reconciliation across differences. All high schoolers are invited regardless of mission trip registration status. Mission trip participants are expected to attend.

COVID protocol in Youth Ministry: Out of an abundance of caution, youth ministry asks that youth attending meetings and programs continue to mask for another two weeks so that we can be reassured of no major spike in local youth COVID cases. Masks will be recommended, but optional for those all on-site youth ministry programs for grades 7 and up on March 13, unless local cases surge. Masking will continue to be required for any group transportation provided by the church. Any off-site activities and trips will abide by COVID protocols in place at the host location.
