Litany for the Season of Easter

Cole Arthur Riley

Leader: Easter holds memory for a God who came back to life still bearing scars.

People: We're reminded we don't have to leave behind our grief in order to participate in the joy of liberation.

Leader: Easter holds memory for a God who loved and honored Mary so well in life that she was able to recognize him by the sound of her own name.

People: God is not far from us.

Leader: As we inhale, we trust "God calls me by name."

People: As we exhale, we remember, "I was never alone."

Leader: We inhale again, trusting "God is alive."

People: We exhale again, remembering, "God's breath is freedom."

Mass in G Major

Kyrie

Lord have mercy
 Christ have mercy
 Lord have mercy

Gloria

Glory to God in the highest.
 And on earth peace
 To all those of good will.
 We praise thee. We bless thee.
 We worship thee. We glorify thee.
 We give thanks to thee
 According to thy great glory.
 Lord God, heavenly king,
 God the father almighty.
 Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten son.

Lord God, lamb of God, son of the father.
 Thou who takest away the sins of the world,
 Have mercy on us.
 Receive our prayer.
 For thou alone art holy.
 Thou alone art the most high,
 Thou alone art the Lord.
 With the holy spirit
 In the glory of God the father.
 Amen.

Credo

I believe in one God,
The father almighty,
Maker of heaven and earth,
And of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
The only begotten son of God;
Born of the father before all ages.
God from God, light from light,
True God from true God;
Begotten, not made,
Of one substance with the father,
By whom all things were made.
Who for us,
And for our salvation
Came down from heaven.
And was incarnate by the holy spirit
Of the virgin Mary. And was made man.
Crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate,
He suffered, and was buried.

And on the third day he rose again,
According to the scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and
He sits at the right hand of the father.
He shall come again with glory,
To judge the living and the dead;
And of his kingdom there will be no end.
I believe in the holy spirit,
The Lord and giver of life,
Who proceeds from the father and the son.
Who together with the father and the son
Is adored and glorified,
Who spoke to us through the prophets.
I confess one baptism
For the remission of sins of the dead,
And the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Prayers of the People

Thanksgivings and Intercessions

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

WORSHIP NOTES

Schubert Mass in G Major

In 1815, at the age of eighteen, it only took five days for Viennese composer Franz Schubert to write the Mass in G Major. This masterwork was his second setting of the mass ordinary. 1815 was a very prolific year for Schubert. In addition to this lyrical Mass in G Major, he completed many chamber works, the second and third symphonies and one hundred forty-four songs. Despite his young age, works from this time period depict his talent for deep expression and compositional maturity. Schubert was also known for his volatile mood swings which can be heard throughout the Mass as delightful melodies quickly turn toward darker unconventional harmonies. Listen for this temperamental fluctuation throughout the “Credo” movement.

Sometimes referred to as The Gentle Mass, this masterwork is a perfect match for our own gentle David Honoré. Once again, God the Great Weaver has lifted us up in our grief with providential timing. This Mass has been a healing balm for our choir. Particularly moving is the quiet manner in which Schubert finishes the Mass with the “Agnus Dei” movement. The ending is quiet and prayerful, almost like drifting off to sleep, floating in God’s river of peace. At the conclusion of this work, please refrain from applauding, and join us in prayerful gratitude for all the musical gifts David has given us these past seven years.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Volunteer with Care Connection: When circumstances arrive in life that preclude someone from engaging in the life of the church through in-person gatherings or worship and yet the fellowship of the congregation remains vital, we connect members together through cards, phone calls, and visits when possible. One of the easiest and best ways to bring a smile is to send a short note of encouragement, happiness, and love to our members who are homebound. If interested in serving on Care Connections or if you know of a member who would value the outreach, please contact Dayle Lively or Katie Lancaster.

Monday Faith Walk: A chance to meet, pray, and talk. We gather at the Church Cloisters on Mondays at 10 a.m. We share a devotional, then walk and talk at a good pace for all, arriving back to church by 11 a.m. Please contact Nancy Johnson to join this group or for more information.

Depression Support Group: The group is a chapter of the National Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance-North Shore. Persons under treatment, family members, and friends are welcome to attend.
