Litany for the Season of Easter

Cole Arthur Riley

Leader: Easter holds memory for a God who came back to life still bearing scars.

People: We're reminded we don't have to leave behind our grief in order to participate in the joy of liberation.

Leader: Easter holds memory for a God who loved and honored Mary so well in life that she was able to recognize him by the sound of her own name.

People: God is not far from us.

Leader: As we inhale, we trust "God calls me by name."

People: As we exhale, we remember, "I was never alone."

Leader: We inhale again, trusting "God is alive."

People: We exhale again, remembering, "God's breath is freedom."

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Come fathers and mothers,

Come sisters and brothers,

Come join us in singing the praises of Zion.

Flowers: The altar flowers are given in loving memory of Barb Gooden from her children and grandchildren. She is always in our hearts, especially today on Mother's Day. The little girl statue wreath is in memory of Jean Schuessler from her daughters Cindy, Jenny, and Heidi.

Milestones: We welcome to baptism today at the 10 a.m. worship, Brooks McCafferty Thibeault, son of Thomas and Casey Thibeault and grandson of Dave and Liz Chandler; and Piper Marlette Waddell and Blair Kathleen Waddell, daughters of Charles and Casey Waddell and granddaughters of Fred and Cate Waddell and Ned and Julie Kennedy.

We extend the sympathy of the congregation to the family of Jim and Lynne Hemmer upon the death of Lynne's father, John Keating on March 12. The white rose on the altar today celebrates his life.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

The University of Michigan Men's Glee Club will perform in Kenilworth Union's Sanctuary on Friday, May 13 at 7 p.m. The group which counts church members Hamilton Chang and John Sharp among its alumni, will perform as part of its spring tour To Repair. The concert highlights the world premiere of composer Tesfa Wondemagegnehu's multi-movement work To Repair, a poignant piece that incorporates elements of African-American spirituals and text from notable Black authors to confront racial inequity and inspire hope for a better future.

Founded in 1859, the University of Michigan Men's Glee Club is the second oldest collegiate chorus in the United States. The ensemble has received international accolades and performed at countless prestigious events and venues such as the Kennedy Center, the World Series, and several American Choral Directors Association conventions.

The concert will also feature works by eight other composers and some rousing renditions of University of Michigan repertoire, making it a great show for all ages and preferences. Come join us in hearing this world-class glee club with strong ties to Kenilworth Union. No tickets necessary and all are welcome.

Special thanks to the families of Andy and Lisa Bond; Hamilton and Lilly Chang; Bill and Kathy Evertsberg; Scott and Maria Fowkes; John Sharp and Cher Mruczek-Sharp; and Keith and Wendy Yamada.

Youth Sunday Special Worship at 2 p.m. next Sunday, May 15. The congregation is invited to celebrate our youth and our graduating seniors at this traditional service at an untraditional time. Regular worship will take place at 8:30 and 10 a.m. The Youth Sunday worship will be in the Sanctuary and livestreamed at 2 p.m. Everyone is invited.

Join the "Murmuration of Hope!" It was wonderful to see some of you at the Outreach Benefit last Friday. It's not too late to support the Outreach Fund and the 40 outreach agencies it supports—in fact, "Better Media" is now matching up to $10,000 in donations—so any donations received here will be doubled! Read more about the match grant challenge here. No gift is too small; together, we can create something significant and transformative.

Care Guild Cooks: On Thursday, May 19 join us from 9 a.m.–noon (or drop in as your schedule permits) in the Kitchen. We will cook to stock the freezer with comfort-meals. If you would like to help please RSVP to Melanie Earle. BYOA—Bring your own apron!

A Collective Murmuration Sermon Series: Spring at Kenilworth Union means a resurgence of communities celebrating. For six consecutive Sundays, we gather with intentionality and purpose: Confirmation, Choral Music Sunday, Mother's Day, Youth Sunday, Children's Day, and Memorial Day all bring us together for their own reasons, but at the core, each unique service offers us a window into what it means to meet God in, with and between us.

The glass is ¾ full! Sunday School teacher recruitment for fall is well underway! If you are able to commit to Eight Sundays during the school year, we would love to hear from you! Please know that you never have to go it alone—you're always paired with someone and you can create your own schedule. We welcome parents and those whose children have aged out of the program who are still devoted to nurturing the children in our congregation. Please contact our Children and Family Youth Director, Greta Connor to commit or find out more information.

Membership: Interested in learning more about the mission and ministry of Kenilworth Union Church? Please join an in house meeting about membership at Kenilworth Union on Sunday, June 5. The class will be held 7–8:30 p.m. in the Culbertson Room. New Member Commissioning is the following Sunday, June 12 at the 10 a.m. worship service. Please contact Bruce Linger or Katie Snipes Lancaster for more information.

Baptism: We are scheduling baptisms for the summer, please reach out to Katie Lancaster if you are interested in bringing your child/ren forward for the sacrament of baptism.

Bill Evertsberg is on Sabbatical: As Bill Evertsberg is on his long-planned sabbatical, the rest of the Kenilworth Union staff, and ministry are positioned to help with the congregations' needs in his absence. As the spirit moves them, Bill and Kathy will include periodic posts from their trip, check for a new post weekly.

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Volunteer with Care Connection: When circumstances arrive in life that preclude someone from engaging in the life of the church through in-person gatherings or worship and yet the fellowship of the congregation remains vital, we connect members together through cards, phone calls, and visits when possible. One of the easiest and best ways to bring a smile is to send a short note of encouragement, happiness, and love to our members who are homebound. If interested in serving on Care Connections or if you know of a member who would value the outreach, please contact Dayle Lively or Katie Lancaster.

Monday Faith Walk: A chance to meet, pray, and talk. We gather at the Church Cloisters on Mondays at 10 a.m. We share a devotional, then walk and talk at a good pace for all, arriving back to church by 11 a.m. Please contact Nancy Johnson to join this group or for more information.

Depression Support Group: The group is a chapter of the National Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance-North Shore. Persons under treatment, family members, and friends are welcome to attend. Our group meets on the second Tuesday of each month at 7 p.m. in the Library. Please contact Beth Palzet, the facilitator of the group for more information.
