Opening Hymn

For the Beauty of the Earth

st. 1, 2, 4

1 For the beau-ty of the earth, for the glo-ry of the skies,
2 For the won-der of each hour of the day and of the night,
3 For the joy of ear and eye, for the heart and mind's de-light,
4 For the joy of hu-man love, broth-er, sis-ter, par-ent, child,
5 For thy-self, best gift di-vine to the world so free-ly given;

for the love which from our birth o-ver and a-round us lies:
hill and vale, and tree and flower, sun and moon, and stars of light:
for the mys-tic har-mo-ny link-ing sense to sound and sight:
friends on earth, and friends a-bove, for all gen-tle thoughts and mild:
for that great, great love of thine, peace on earth and joy in heaven:

Refrain

Lord of all, to thee we raise this our hymn of grate-ful praise.

Litany for the Season of Easter

Cole Arthur Riley

Leader: Easter holds memory for a God who came back to life still bearing scars.

People: We're reminded we don't have to leave behind our grief in order to participate in the joy of liberation.

Leader: Easter holds memory for a God who loved and honored Mary so well in life that she was able to recognize him by the sound of her own name.

People: God is not far from us.

Leader: As we inhale, we trust "God calls me by name."

People: As we exhale, we remember, "I was never alone."

Leader: We inhale again, trusting "God is alive."

People: We exhale again, remembering, "God's breath is freedom."

Rite of Confirmation

8:30 a.m.

Questions to Confirmand and the Congregation

Leader: Having gone through a season of faithful preparation for this day, do you confirm your faith in God, and by doing so, become members of Kenilworth Union Church? If so, please say "I do."

Confirmand: I do.

Leader: Do you promise, through prayer and action, to continue on your faith journey trusting in the love of God made known in Jesus Christ? And, do you promise to be a faithful member of this congregation of the whole church, celebrating God's love through worship, and serving Christ with energy, intelligence, imagination, and love? If so, please say, "I do."

Confirmand: I do.

Leader: Do you, the members and friends of Kenilworth Union Church, promise to pray for this new member of the church as he continues to journey in faith? Do you promise to share with him in the hopes and labors of the church, bound together in the unity of Christ? And, do you promise, by the power of the Holy Spirit, to grow together with him in the knowledge and love of God? If so, please say "we do."

Blessed Be God

Betty Jacobson

God is my rock, God is my fortress,

A very present help in time of need.

God is my rock, God is my fortress,

How precious are his thoughts to me;

If I should count them, if I should count them,

They are more in number than the sand,

They are more in number than the sand.

Search me, O God, and know my heart,
Try me, O God, and know my thoughts.
O search me, O God, and know my heart,
Lead me in the way everlasting. Repeat

Blessed be God from everlasting to everlasting;
Blessed be God from everlasting to everlasting;
Amen and amen, Amen and amen, Amen.

Prayers of the People

Thanksgivings and Intercessions

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Beloved, God's Chosen

Robert Hobby

10 a.m.

Beloved, God's chosen, put on as a garment
Compassion, forgiveness, and goodness of heart.
Above all, before all, let love be your raiment
That binds into one every dissonant part.

Within, call forth wisdom to dwell in you richly;
Let peace rule your hearts and peace be of Christ.
And from the heart's chamber, beloved and holy,
Let singing thanksgiving to God ever rise.

Beloved, God's chosen, put on as a garment
Compassion, forgiveness, and goodness of heart.
Above all, before all, let love be your raiment
That binds into one every dissonant part.

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Children and Family Ministry Year in Review: What a joy to share that next week we will once again gather for Children's Day, a beloved tradition at Kenilworth Union Church for more than 70 years where third graders who have learned scripture by heart receive a personalized Bible. Thanks be to God for these young people and a year of growing in God's love and grace this program year.

Perhaps you remember that at the beginning of this school year we were just trying to figure out how to regather with many COVID precautions. Creativity was the key to resuming traditions. We met outside for Sunday School for three months, we wore masks and stayed distanced. Our goal was to register 140 kids.

December arrived with hope that Christmas would be another opportunity to resume normal traditions but the Omicron surge necessitated more pivots. Drawing deep from the wells of creativity we hosted our second live nativity indoors because of the weather...

...We are more grateful than ever to be able to finish the year together on Children's Day and recognize the growth we all experienced. Please join us on Sunday, May 22 at the 10 a.m. worship to help celebrate the third graders and all that God is doing in our midst. Continue Reading

Notecards: The children created Ukrainian flag themed notecards during Sunday school. Notecards with envelopes will be sold in packages of 8 for $20. All proceeds will go directly to UNICEF to benefit Ukrainian families. Purchase here through the Kenilworth Union Church website.

The glass is ¾ full! Sunday School teacher recruitment for fall is well underway! If you are able to commit to Eight Sundays during the school year, we would love to hear from you! Please know that you never have to go it alone—you're always paired with someone and you can create your own schedule. We welcome parents and those whose children have aged out of the program who are still devoted to nurturing the children in our congregation. Please contact our Children and Family Youth Director, Greta Connor to commit or find out more information.

Join the "Murmuration of Hope!" It was wonderful to see some of you at the Outreach Benefit last Friday. It's not too late to support the Outreach Fund and the 40 outreach agencies it supports—in fact, "Better Media" is now matching up to $10,000 in donations—so any donations received here will be doubled! Read more about the matching grant challenge here. No gift is too small; together, we can create something significant and transformative.

Care Guild Cooks: This Thursday, May 19 join us from 9 a.m.–noon (or drop in as your schedule permits) in the Kitchen. We will cook to stock the freezer with comfort-meals. If you would like to help please RSVP to Melanie Earle. BYOA—Bring your own apron!

A Collective Murmuration Sermon Series: Spring at Kenilworth Union means a resurgence of communities celebrating. For six consecutive Sundays, we gather with intentionality and purpose: Confirmation, Choral Music Sunday, Mother's Day, Youth Sunday, Children's Day, and Memorial Day all bring us together for their own reasons, but at the core, each unique service offers us a window into what it means to meet God in, with and between us.

Membership: Interested in learning more about the mission and ministry of Kenilworth Union Church? Please join an in house meeting about membership at Kenilworth Union on Sunday, June 5. The class will be held 7–8:30 p.m. in the Culbertson Room. New Member Commissioning is the following Sunday, June 12 at the 10 a.m. worship service. Please contact Bruce Linger or Katie Snipes Lancaster for more information.

Baptism: We are scheduling baptisms for the summer, please reach out to Katie Lancaster if you are interested in bringing your child/ren forward for the sacrament of baptism.

Bill Evertsberg is on Sabbatical: As Bill Evertsberg is on his long-planned sabbatical, the rest of the Kenilworth Union staff, and ministry are positioned to help with the congregations' needs in his absence. As the spirit moves them, Bill and Kathy will include periodic posts from their trip, check for a new post weekly.

June Town Hall Meetings, please RSVP: The meetings will update you on our Church facility visioning and planning as well as the early stages of our proposed capital campaign.

RACIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE

Civil Rights Tour: You're Invited...November 3–6 “In recent years Kathy and I have led pilgrimages to sacred sites like Jerusalem and Edinburgh. Please join us for a journey to equally holy shrines on American soil.” —Reverend Dr. William A. Evertsberg

CONGREGATIONAL CARE

Volunteer with Care Connection: When circumstances arrive in life that preclude someone from engaging in the life of the church through in-person gatherings or worship and yet the fellowship of the congregation remains vital, we connect members together through cards, phone calls, and visits when possible. One of the easiest and best ways to bring a smile is to send a short note of encouragement, happiness, and love to our members who are homebound. If interested in serving on Care Connections or if you know of a member who would value the outreach, please contact Dayle Lively or Katie Lancaster.

Monday Faith Walk: A chance to meet, pray, and talk. We gather at the Church Cloisters on Mondays at 10 a.m. We share a devotional, then walk and talk at a good pace for all, arriving back to church by 11 a.m. Please contact Nancy Johnson to join this group or for more information.

Depression Support Group: The group is a chapter of the National Depression and Bipolar Support Alliance-North Shore. Persons under treatment, family members, and friends are welcome to attend.
